Part 1.1:

Dear Author,

This is a galley proof (PDF) for you to check for urgent corrections to your paper for IJMR International Journal of Materials Research, for online publication. Your paper will be printed in the next possible issue. Please read, complete, sign and send these forms by fax or e-mail (see below) to Dr. Ewald Bischoff in the IJMR editorial office within the next 4 days, along with any corrections you may have. Please note that this is only a proof copy, the final published image resolution will be inline with that of your originals. Please do NOT answer this e-mail by using reply. Thank you very much!

Part 1:

Please find attached, the corrected proofs, reprint order form and print release document. There are a few typesetting errors which have been marked in red on the PDF file, and are as follows:

On page 1, the symbol "micro" is missing from the 0.2 micrometre, and the symbol "gamma" is missing after "preferentially into"

On page 2, caption to fig. 1, "modulates" should be "modulated", and the "micro" is missing twice in the last paragraph of page 2

On page 3, "an region" should read "a region"

On page 3, caption to figure 4, the "micro" is missing

On page 4, there should be greater space between figures 7a and 7b since the "gamma" symbol is being partly masked by overlap.

On page 5, second column, "scan" should read "scans"

Thank you for your help.
